

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs

August 6, 2002

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

I have followed with a great deal of interest the diversified artistic work of OR NILI AZULAY, who has succeeded in combining East and West in a unique and distinctive style that is worthy of public awareness.

Or Nili Azulay's contribution as a notable representative of the artistic quality of her country on the international scene is significant, and undoubtedly merits attention.

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, which appears to read 'Shimon Peres'. The signature is fluid and cursive, with the first name 'Shimon' and the last name 'Peres' clearly distinguishable.

Shimon Peres